A Lamp for the Path to Enlightenment

By Atisha Dipamkara Shrijnana (982–1054) Homage to the bodhisattva, the youthful Manjushri.

I pay homage with great respect
 To the conquerors of the three times,
 To their teaching and to those who aspire to virtue.
 Urged by the good disciple Jangchub Ö
 I shall illuminate the lamp
 For the path to enlightenment.

Understand that there are three kinds of persons
 Because of their small, middling and supreme capacities.
 I shall write clearly distinguishing
 Their individual characteristics.

3. Know that those who by whatever meansSeek for themselves no moreThan the pleasures of cyclic existenceAre persons of the least capacity.

4. Those who seek peace for themselves alone,Turning away from worldly pleasuresAnd avoiding destructive actionsAre said to be of middling capacity.

5. Those who, through their personal suffering,Truly want to end completelyAll the suffering of othersAre persons of supreme capacity.

6. For those excellent living beings,Who desire supreme enlightenment,I shall explain the perfect methodsTaught by the spiritual teachers.

7. Facing paintings, statues and so forthOf the completely enlightened one,Reliquaries and the excellent teaching,Offer flowers, incense—whatever you have.

8. With the seven-part offeringFrom the [Prayer of] Noble Conduct,With the thought never to turn backTill you gain ultimate enlightenment,

9. And with strong faith in the Three Jewels,Kneeling with one knee on the groundAnd your hands pressed together,First of all take refuge three times.

10. Next, beginning with an attitudeOf love for all living creatures,Consider beings, excluding none,Suffering in the three bad rebirths,Suffering birth, death and so forth.

11. Then, since you want to free these beingsFrom the suffering of pain,From suffering and the cause of suffering,Arouse immutably the resolveTo attain enlightenment.

2

12. The qualities of developingSuch an aspiration areFully explained by MaitreyaIn the Array of Trunks Sutra.

13. Having learned about the infinite benefitsOf the intention to gain full enlightenmentBy reading this sutra or listening to a teacher,Arouse it repeatedly to make it steadfast.

14. The Sutra Requested by ViradattaFully explains the merit therein.At this point, in summary,I will cite just three verses.

15. If it possessed physical form,The merit of the altruistic intentionWould completely fill the whole of spaceAnd exceed even that.

16. If someone were to fill with jewelsAs many buddha fields as there are grainsOf sand in the GangesTo offer to the Protector of the World,

17. This would be surpassed byThe gift of folding one's handsAnd inclining one's mind to enlightenment,For such is limitless.

18. Having developed the aspiration for enlightenment,Constantly enhance it through concerted effort.To remember it in this and also in other lives,Keep the precepts properly as explained.

19. Without the vow of the engaged intention,Perfect aspiration will not grow.Make effort definitely to take it,Since you want the wish for enlightenment to grow.

20. Those who maintain any of the seven kindsOf individual liberation vowHave the ideal [prerequisite] forThe bodhisattva vow, not others.

21. The Tathagata spoke of seven kindsOf individual liberation vow.The best of these is glorious pure conduct,Said to be the vow of a fully ordained person.

22. According to the ritual described inThe chapter on discipline in the Bodhisattva Stages,Take the vow from a goodAnd well-qualified spiritual teacher.

23. Understand that a good spiritual teacherIs one skilled in the vow ceremony,Who lives by the vow and hasThe confidence and compassion to bestow it.

24. However, in case you try but cannotFind such a spiritual teacher,I shall explain anotherCorrect procedure for taking the vow.

25. I shall write here very clearly, as explainedIn the Ornament of Manjushri's Buddha Land Sutra,How, long ago, when Manjushri was Ambaraja,He aroused the intention to become enlightened.

26. "In the presence of the protectors,I arouse the intention to gain full enlightenment.I invite all beings as my guestsAnd shall free them from cyclic existence.

27. "From this moment onwardsUntil I attain enlightenment,I shall not harbor harmful thoughts,Anger, avarice or envy.

28. "I shall cultivate pure conduct,Give up wrong-doing and desireAnd with joy in the vow of disciplineTrain myself to follow the buddhas.

29. "I shall not be eager to reachEnlightenment in the quickest way,But shall stay behind till the very end,For the sake of a single being.

30. "I shall purify limitlessInconceivable landsAnd remain in the ten directionsFor all those who call my name.

31. "I shall purify all my bodilyAnd verbal forms of activity.My mental activities, too, I shall purifyAnd do nothing that is non-virtuous."

32. When those observing the vowOf the active altruistic intention have trained wellIn the three forms of discipline, their respectFor these three forms of discipline grows,Which causes purity of body, speech and mind.

33. Therefore, through effort in the vow made byBodhisattvas for pure, full enlightenment,The collections for complete enlightenmentWill be thoroughly accomplished.

34. All buddhas say the cause for the completionOf the collections, whose nature isMerit and exalted wisdom,Is the development of higher perception.

35. Just as a bird with undevelopedWings cannot fly in the sky,Those without the power of higher perceptionCannot work for the good of living beings.

6

36. The merit gained in a single dayBy one who possesses higher perceptionCannot be gained even in a hundred lifetimesBy one without such higher perception.

37. Those who want swiftly to completeThe collections for full enlightenmentWill accomplish higher perceptionThrough effort, not through laziness.

38. Without the attainment of calm abiding,Higher perception will not occur.Therefore make repeated effortTo accomplish calm abiding.

39. While the conditions for calm abidingAre incomplete, meditative stabilizationWill not be accomplished, even if one meditatesStrenuously for thousands of years.

40. Thus maintaining well the conditions mentioned In the Collection for Meditative Stabilization Chapter, Place the mind on any one Virtuous focal object.

41. When the practitioner has gained calm abiding,Higher perception will also be gained,But without practice of the perfection of wisdom,The obstructions will not come to an end.

42. Thus, to eliminate all obstructionsTo liberation and omniscience,The practitioner should continually cultivateThe perfection of wisdom with skillful means.

43. Wisdom without skillful meansAnd skillful means, too, without wisdomAre referred to as bondage.Therefore do not give up either.

44. To eliminate doubts concerningWhat is called wisdom and what skillful means,I shall make clear the differenceBetween skillful means and wisdom.

45. Apart from the perfection of wisdom,All virtuous practices such asThe perfection of giving are describedAs skillful means by the Victorious Ones.

46. Whoever, under the influence of familiarityWith skillful means, cultivates wisdomWill quickly attain enlightenment—Not just by meditating on selflessness.

47. Understanding emptiness of inherent existence Through realizing that the aggregates, constituents And sources are not produced Is described as wisdom. 48. Something existent cannot be produced,Nor something non-existent, like a sky flower.These errors are both absurd and thusBoth of the two will not occur either.

49. A thing is not produced from itself, Nor from another, also not from both, Nor causelessly either, thus it does not Exist inherently by way of its own entity.

50. Moreover, when all phenomena are examinedAs to whether they are one or many,They are not seen to exist by way of their own entity,And thus are ascertained as not inherently existent.

51. The reasoning of the Seventy Stanzas on Emptiness,The Treatise on the Middle Way and so forthExplain that the nature of all thingsIs established as emptiness.

52. Since there are a great many passages,I have not cited them here,But have explained just their conclusionsFor the purpose of meditation.

53. Thus, whatever is meditationOn selflessness, in that it does not observeAn inherent nature in phenomena,Is the cultivation of wisdom.

9

54. Just as wisdom does not seeAn inherent nature in phenomena,Having analyzed wisdom itself by reasoning,Non-conceptually meditate on that.

55. The nature of this worldly existence,Which has come from conceptualization,Is conceptuality. Thus the elimination ofConceptuality is the highest state of nirvana.

56. The great ignorance of conceptualityMakes us fall into the ocean of cyclic existence.Resting in non-conceptual stabilization,Space-like non-conceptuality manifests clearly.

57. When bodhisattvas non-conceptually contemplate This excellent teaching, they will transcend Conceptuality, so hard to overcome, And eventually reach the non-conceptual state.

58. Having ascertained through scriptureAnd through reasoning that phenomenaAre not produced nor inherently existent,Meditate without conceptuality.

59. Having thus meditated on suchness,Eventually, after reaching "heat" and so forth,The "very joyful" and the others are attainedAnd, before long, the enlightened state of buddhahood.

60. If you wish to create with easeThe collections for enlightenmentThrough activities of pacification,Increase and so forth, gained by the power of mantra,

61. And also through the force of the eight
And other great attainments like the "good pot"—
If you want to practice secret mantra,
As explained in the action and performance tantras,

62. Then, to receive the preceptor initiation, You must please an excellent spiritual teacher Through service, valuable gifts and the like As well as through obedience.

63. Through the full bestowing of the preceptor initiation,By a spiritual teacher who is pleased,You are purified of all wrong-doingAnd become fit to gain powerful attainments.

64. Because the Great Tantra of the Primordial BuddhaForbids it emphatically,Those observing pure conduct should notTake the secret and wisdom initiations.

65. If those observing the austere practice of pure conductWere to hold these initiations,Their vow of austerity would be impairedThrough doing that which is proscribed.

66. This creates transgressions that are a defeatFor those observing discipline.Since they are certain to fall to a bad rebirth,They will never gain accomplishments.

67. There is no fault if one who has received The preceptor initiation and has knowledge Of suchness listens to or explains the tantras And performs burnt offering rituals, Or makes offering of gifts and so forth.

68. I, the Elder Dipamkarashri, having seen itExplained in sutra and in other teachings,Have made this concise explanationAt the request of Jangchub Ö.
